

Job Vacancies at CMIL: Empowering SRHR Advocacy in Sri Lankan Universities

Are you passionate about advocating for Sexual and Reproductive Health Rights (SRHR) for young girls in Sri Lanka's university system? Do you believe in the power of media and information to bring about positive change? If so, CMIL invites you to be part of an exciting project aimed at elevating the confidence of young girls (18–27) in expressing their SRHR needs and advocating for policy change. We are currently seeking dedicated individuals to join our dynamic team and make a meaningful impact.

ABOUT CMIL:

The Centre for Media and Information Literacy (CMIL) is a new start-up and a non-profit organization committed to promote Critical Information Consumption (CIC) and Digital Media and Information Literacy (DMIL) amongst people of all ages, with a view to enabling them as active and vibrant citizens in the democratization of information in Sri Lanka. CMIL has also started forming, strengthening and sustaining a first peace journalists' network in Sri Lanka. CMIL envisions to use mobile journalism as an effective tool to promote unity in diversity.

| Consultancy Positions | Responsibilities |
|----------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Consultant - Organizational Policy Development | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop an updated gender policy for the organization • Create new organizational policies in response to CMIL management requests • Collaborate with CMIL's management to gather input for policy revisions and integrate them into the final draft |
| 2. Research Assistant: | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide technical support for the baseline consultant and research consultant. • Assist in reviewing research and baseline instruments. • Collect and input data into recommended software for analysis. • Facilitate FGDs, research meetings, interviews, and data collection. • Support data analysis and narrative production. • Develop research and survey instruments in collaboration with the research consultant and CMIL program team. |
| 3. Consultant for Baseline and Endline: | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop instruments for both baseline and endline surveys. • Provide narratives for both baseline and endline reports. • Collect, analyze, and present data according to CMIL program team guidance. • Travel to project locations, meet beneficiaries, and conduct additional work related to baseline and endline. • Deliverable: Final baseline and endline survey reports. |
| 4. Research Consultant: | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop research proposals and research tools. • Guide research assistants in data collection. |

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Conduct FGDs, interviews, and consultations. • Deliver high-quality research, including a minimum of 250 surveys, 30 interviews, and 10 FGDs covering at least five state universities. • Provide editorial support and narrative for CMIL's research on the SRHR status in Sri Lankan universities. • Deliverable: Final research draft. |
| 5. FGD Translators: | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide translation and interpretation support for FGDs, interviews, research meetings, partner consultations, etc. |
| 6. Short Film Trainer: | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Review and finalize story ideas proposed by elevate project participants. • Conduct two training sessions for 50 female undergraduates on producing short films advocating SRHR. • Provide inputs for pre-and post-workshop evaluation questionnaires. • Deliverable: Session plan and a one-page report on overall workshop progress. |
| • SRHR Consultant: | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Review all production work, activities, and provide comments for improvement. • Review film scripts and provide insights for enhancements. • Review film production and offer inputs. |
| • Production Supervisor/Film Shooting Consultant: | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide mentorship for female graduates to successfully finalize their films. • Offer professional inputs to enrich films in line with SRHR principles. • Guide female filmmakers on storytelling, filming, editing, and post-production activities. |
| • Editor/Film Editing Consultant: | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide editing support for filmmakers. • Offer technical support for female filmmakers to address video editing, camera issues, etc. |

If you are committed to making a positive impact and contributing to the advancement of SRHR in Sri Lankan universities, we encourage you to apply.

Application Deadline:

March 15, 2023.

How to Apply: Info@cmil.lk

Let's work together to break the silence and advocate for the rights of young girls!
 #CMIL #SRHRAdvocacy #EmpowerYoungGirls #JobOpportunity #SocialChange